

You find out that there is a group chat that is talking about you.

Who would you approach to talk to about it?

You find out that there is a group chat that is talking about you.

Who would you approach to talk to about it?

You are being peer pressured to post something on social media that you don't want to post.

Who would you talk to about it?

You are being peer pressured to post something on social media that you don't want to post.

Who would you talk to about it?

You have seen someone from your school being bullied on social media.

How would you handle it and who would you talk to about it?

You have seen someone from your school being bullied on social media.

How would you handle it and who would you talk to about it?